The hotel has kindly extended our room block through December 15, 2006. Our room block guarantees the newly-renovated rooms in a quite part of the hotel. If you book directly with the hotel, this guarantee does not apply.

Please review booking restrictions described on our Conference Web Site before calling Vegas.com:

When our room block is filled, room requests will be accommodated on an as available basis at seasonal rates. Rates through Web travel discounters such as Expedia.com are currently running approximately $150 - $200 a night for January 19 and 20, 2007, for most hotels on the strip. Rates will increase as availability decreases.

Don't miss out on these low rates!
